If only a portion of the goods are available for shipment to meet the Delivery Date, Supplier will notify Fresenius Kabi and ship the available goods, unless otherwise directed by Fresenius Kabi. Fresenius Kabi may return any unauthorized undershipment or any over-shipment at Supplier's risk and expense. Where the Agreement provides for installation, commissioning or any other work to be carried out by Supplier, such work shall be executed with good workmanship and using proper materials. As a minimum requirement, such goods shall comply with all applicable quality and certification standards.

For all software provided by Supplier ("Software"), Supplier grants to Fresenius Kabi and its Affiliates a perpetual, non-exclusive, transferable, irrevocable, royalty-free, worldwide right and license to use, reproduce, prepare derivative works of, distribute, sell, offer to sell, and import the Software in connection with Fresenius Kabi's distribution and support of the goods including without limitation distribution in electronic form (e.g. via Fresenius Kabi's website). 2. PACKING AND SHIPMENT.

Supplier shall pack, mark and ship the goods in such manner as to prevent damage during transport and which facilitates unloading, tracking, handling and storage. Any charges for boxing, crating, handling, storage or other packing requirements shall be stated separately on Supplier's invoice. Supplier shall mark all containers with necessary lifting, handling and shipping information and also purchase order numbers, release numbers, dates of shipment, and the names of the consignee and consignor. 3. ACCEPTANCE.

Fresenius Kabi's purchase order, including these Terms and Conditions of Purchase, is Fresenius Kabi's offer to Supplier. Upon acceptance by Supplier, either by acknowledgement, commencement of services or shipment of goods, by delivery of any items ordered, or otherwise, Fresenius Kabi's purchase order, including these Terms and Conditions of Purchase, shall be a binding contract ("Agreement").

If any such change causes an increase or decrease in the cost of, or the time required for performance of this Agreement, an equitable adjustment shall be made in the Agreement price or delivery schedule, or both, and the Agreement shall be modified in writing accordingly. No claim by Supplier for adjustment shall be valid unless asserted within twenty (20) days from the date of receipt by Supplier of the notification of change provided, however, that such period may be extended upon the written approval of Fresenius Kabi. Nothing in this Section shall excuse Supplier from proceeding with the Agreement as changed or amended.

5. INSPECTION; RESPONSIBILITY FOR GOODS.

If Fresenius Kabi fails to notify Supplier within the specified time, Fresenius Kabi will be deemed to have accepted the deliverable. (c) At least once a month, Supplier will report to Fresenius Kabi on the status of the work, including any deliverables. On reasonable notice, Fresenius Kabi may inspect Supplier's work in progress and receive copies of it.
