The screenshot displays the top navigation bar of the ESA Academy website. The 'Create Account' button is highlighted with a red circle. Below the navigation bar, the ESA Academy logo is visible on the left, and the URL 'esahq.org' is on the right. A horizontal menu contains categories: 'What's new', 'eLearning', 'Topics', 'Events', 'Contributors', and 'Sponsored Materials'. Below this is a search bar with a 'Search' button and a 'Favorites/Navigation history' section. A sidebar on the left shows '18 eLearning Programs' and '18 Modules'. The main content area features a blue header for 'Transfusion, Haemostasis and Thrombosis 18' and a grid of six course cards. Each card includes a title in a different language (Lietuva, Eesti, Polski, Nederland, Magyar, Luxemburg), a subtitle 'Use of Hydroxyethyl Starch Solutions according to the approved European Product Information', and a date. Each card also features a small graphic of a person and a globe.
